SPECIAL -:- BARGAINS.

Big Prices will not do in these times when even the wealthy can not afford to waste their money and the poor require double duty of every dollar and every penny.

As our prices change with each day's arrival of new goods, it will be impossible to give quotations, but it will be our aim to name figures that will compel you, in self-defense, to buy from us. We deal in good goods and not trash, and believe the masses will patronize that house that selfs the best goods for the least money. Among our dely arrivals we shall place before our people some buck-slides that are positively beyond the whisper of competition, comparison, or monoply. Prices that will teach you in the silent logic of truth, the difference between dealing with live and with dead men, between the cash and credit system, between the right and the wrong way.
